His face shone like the sun, and His clothes became white as the light. Suddenly, together with this dread and marvellous effulgence of light, there appeared those pinnacles of the Prophets, Moses and Elias, who spoke with the Lord Jesus concerning His saving Passion that was about to take place. Standing before Him as reverent servants, they showed that He is Lord of both the living and the dead, for Moses came forth from Hades, having died many centuries before, and Elias, as it were from heaven, whither he had been taken up while yet alive.Â

T HOU wast transfigured on the mountain, O Christ our God, showing to Thy disciples Thy glory as each one could endure. Jesus' Transfiguration was the fulfillment of this prophecy.Â

The services, and the commentaries of the holy fathers, which have entered into the mind of the church, explain that the apostles were prepared for the crucifixion by witnessing the Transfiguration, and the "splendor of the resurrection" that it prefigured. They would soon be subjected to terrible temptations and fears, and our Savior wanted to put the knowledge of His divinity indelibly in their minds, to help them in the terrible days of his trial and death. Moses and Elijah had appeared and were talking with Jesus about his death, soon to take place in Jerusalem. Jesus responded that Elijah had already come, (meaning John the Baptist, who, as Scripture tells us, had come in the spirit and power of Elijah). The next day Jesus and his three disciples came down off the mountain, back to the ordinary world of failure and demon possession. The transfiguration is a key event in Christ's life. Kessinger Publishing is the place to find hundreds of thousands of rare and hard-to-find book While he was praying his face changed in appearance and his clothing became dazzling white. And behold, two men were conversing with him, Moses and Elijah, who appeared in glory and spoke of his exodus that he was going to accomplish in Jerusalem. Peter and his companions had been overcome by sleep, but becoming fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men standing with him. It is not meant only for theologians to speculate over or for mystics alone to encounter. We are all invited into the experience. The path up that mountain proceeds through prayer and encounter. We are being transfigured in Christ, even now, as actively we follow Him. This transfiguration will only be complete when the entire person, including the body, is fully redeemed and transformed.
