

A Light in the Attic

By Shel Silverstein, Shel Silverstein

HarperCollins Publishers Inc. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A Light in the Attic, Shel Silverstein, Shel Silverstein, Last night, while I lay thinking here, Some Whatifs crawled inside my ear And pranced and partied all night long And sang their same old Whatif song: Whatif I flunk that test? Whatif green hair grows on my chest? Whatif nobody likes me? Whatif a bolt of lightning strikes me? . . . Here in the attic of Shel Silverstein you will find Backward Bill, Sour Face Ann, the Meehoo With an Exactlywatt, and the Polar Bear in the Frigidaire. You will talk with the Broiled Face, and find out what happens when someone steals your knees, you get caught by the Quick-Digesting Gink, a mountain snores, and they've put a brassiere on the camel. With 12 never-before-published poems, here is a special edition of this beloved poetry collection, from the creator of Where the Sidewalk ends and Falling Up.

A Light in the Attic. Quite the same Wikipedia. Just better. A Light in the Attic is a collection of poems by the American poet, writer, and children's author Shel Silverstein. It was first published by Harper & Row in 1981. The poems for children are accompanied by illustrations also created by Shel Silverstein. There's a light on in the attic Though the house is dark and shuttered, I can see a flickerin' flutter, And I know what it's about. There's a light on in the attic. I can see it from the outside, And I know you're on the inside . . . lookin' out. But if the moon's still shinin' there, Look close underneath and you'll get A clear look at me in the sky swingin' free With a star in my moon-catchin' net. [illustration: in addition to the row of houses at the bottom, there is a picture of a child swinging at the bottom of a long-handled net that has caught a star.] [9] HAMMOCK.
